THE COUNTRY CLUB OF NAPLES

FROM THE GENERAL MANAGER

Dear Members:

We are excited to present the 2025/2026 That's Entertainment Booklet, showcasing a season full of Social and Lifestyle events. This year, our focus is on enhancing our member experience and bringing our membership closer together. Our calendar is filled with opportunities to relax, connect, and enjoy time with friends.

This booklet serves as your "Save the Date" guide. As each event approaches, you will receive the most up-to-date details in your Thursday E-blast.

Reservation reminders:

- Social events – reservations open approximately two months in advance
- Dinner reservations – available two weeks in advance

On behalf of our entire team, we look forward to another season of exceptional experiences, wonderful friendships, and lasting memories with you!

Thank you,

Blayne Gilbert
General Manager/COO

Monday, November 10 Girlfriends' Luncheons

Gather up your girlfriends or come alone and make new ones. This mix & mingle event showcases our fun and lively ladies of CCN.

Join us as we welcome author Lisa Black -Crime Scene & Forensic Scientist. Lisa Black spent five fulfilling years as a forensic scientist at the Cuyahoga County Coroner's Office after earning a Biology degree, analyzing various types of trace evidence and crime scenes. A move to Florida—prompted by her husband's dislike of Cleveland winters—shifted her career to fingerprint analysis and crime scenes with the Cape Coral Police Department. She is also an active writer and speaker, involved in several professional and writing organizations, and has extensive forensic training and courtroom experience. Notably, she was a Guest of Honor at Killer Nashville 2021.

Girlfriend's' Luncheon
Glass Cedars
Book Review
by Kathy Feghali

GLASS CEDARS, a historical fiction novel, is set against the backdrop of the Lebanese Civil War. It is extremely relevant and timely today with the news coming from the Middle East. The story also mirrors what is happening now worldwide—deeply divided populations exploited by powerful players.
